

Psalm 150 Laudate Dominum

1 Hallelujah!

Praise God in his holy house of worship;
praise God under the open skies.

2 Praise God for his acts of power;
praise God for his magnificent greatness.

3 Praise with the blast on the trumpet;
praise by strumming soft strings.

4 Praise God with castanets and dance;
praise God with banjo and flute.

5 Praise God with cymbals and a big bass drum;
praise God with fiddles and mandolin.

6 Let every living, breathing creature praise God!

Hallelujah!

Zammarin

*the ensemble supporting music at combined services and the summer
outdoor 9:15 service*

Zammarin is a Hebrew term meaning "a group of singers accompanied by plucked instruments." It is the name of a very talented group of musicians at St. Timothy's. The ensemble also has performed at special concerts and recorded CDs.

All sorts of musicians of any age are welcome in Zammarin. We don't just play instruments that are plucked. We'll incorporate whatever instruments are brought to the table. We also need sound/tech crew volunteers.

Zammarin usually rehearses on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. in the Nave. During summer months, rehearsals are usually in the Parish Hall. Tarbell Patten is the director. For more information, contact him directly at 240-0981 or tpatten4@gmail.com.

St. Timothy's Choir

St. Timothy's Choir welcomes older teen and adult singers and is responsible for leading music at the 10:30 liturgy, festival liturgies, and combined services. The Choir rehearses on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. for 90 minutes, September through May

Throughout the year, St. Timothy's Choir participates in special services at the church and joins forces with other singers in the community. In past years, we have sung in joint Evensongs, community-wide hymn festivals, and cooperative services with other churches.

All are welcome to join the choir, even those who do not read music. We will teach you! Please contact the director, Philip Newton, at 886-2281 (ext. 307) or pnewton@sttimsignal.com.

St. Timothy's Schola

The Schola is St. Timothy's youth singing and advanced ringing choir, whose membership includes ages 13+, grades 8+ and meets Sundays in the Choir Room and Nave, 1:30-2:30 p.m., or as fits the schedule of active teens! Flexibility is the key with this group, including those who just ring and those who just sing.

The Schola rehearses each week (except during school breaks and high holy days). They sing/ring as prepared at the 10:30 service. They may also participate in the choral events with St. Timothy's Choristers, with the adult choir on Christmas Eve, and in the Chattanooga-area adult and chorister Evensongs.

Schola's repertoire includes classical and world music, serious and fun. Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) opportunities—including the Nashville Chorister Festival and summer RSCM Charlotte (NC) course—are provided for this choir as well. Membership is open to younger boys with changed voices; please inquire. We also practice small ensemble handbell ringing (duets to quartets). Philip Newton is the director.

St. Timothy's Handbell Choir

St. Timothy's Handbell Choir welcomes older teens and adults. The Choir rehearses Wednesdays, 5:45-6:45 p.m., in the Nave, September through May. The choir plays at about one service every six weeks.

The Choir rings three octaves of Malmark handbells, and occasionally uses hand chimes. We always welcome new members. If you don't already know how to ring handbells, we'll teach you.

This is a fun group, and if you are interested in joining, contact Kathy Tugman, director, at 886-6431 or ktugman@comcast.com.
